

Wayland Register

Students Return Next Wednesday

School Awaits New Year

Wayland Central School will reopen for the 1987-88 year Wednesday with an increased student population of 1,579, a raise of 39 from the previous year.

The estimated number for the high school is 746, compared with 720 enrolled for classes a year ago. The comparative figures for the elementary school are 833 as opposed to 820 last September.

When students return they will start a full day of classes with the doors open at 7:55 a.m. Home room period will be at a new time 8:01 to 8:05 a.m. followed by the first class period starting at 8:09 a.m.

Teachers will start their new year Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. with coffee and donuts. At 9 a.m. Dr. John Burroughs, school superintendent, will welcome the staff and introduce new faculty members.

The schedule continues at 9:45 a.m. with a faculty meeting until 11 a.m. At noon, the annual luncheon, sponsored by the Board of Education, will be served followed by department meetings until 2:15 p.m.

School bus drivers will have their orientation at 9:30 a.m. in room 165. At noon, they will join the teachers for the School Board luncheon.

Burroughs reported there will be six new members joining the staff in the high school. They are Richard Bondi, social studies; Linda Groth, foreign language; Lisa Zielienski, physical education; Patricia Annesi, librarian; Pamela McNEY, special education; and Margaret Hooker, guidance.

New staff members in the elementary school are Bonnie Davenport, resource room; James Talbot and Jeff Englert, physical education; Polly Stapley, librarian; Julie Acomb, art department; and Karen Folts, teacher aide.
